French Champagne

I drink it when I'm happy and when I'm sad. Sometimes I drink it when I'm alone. When I have company I consider it obligatory. I trifle with it if I'm not hungry and I drink it when I am. Otherwise I never touch it- unless I'm thirsty. [Madame Bollinger]

Bollinger Special Cuveé brut	Champagne		1890
Pinot Noir gives the wine richness while Chardonnay adds delicacy, liveliness and freshness. One of the best Champagnes in the world.
Moët & Chandon	Champagne		1150
The classic blend of Pinot Noir, Chardonnay and Pinot Meunier make this one the best selling Champagne in the world.

Chardonnay

	GLASS	BOTTLE
Rietvallei Natural (Unwooded) Robertson			235
Surprisingly big on the palate with crisp almost Sauvignon Blanc characteristics coming through the nose.

Fat Bastard Robertson			246
About as subtle as a punch in the mouth. Full, rich and ripe with some pretty serious oak treatment. Pull a cork, take a slurp, close your eyes and all of a sudden you are whisked off to the Cote d'Azur where you find yourself laying drunk in the back seat of a rusty Peugeot.

Vondeling 4Star Wellington			335
A wonderful opulent Chardonnay with a creamy citrus lift, a peach blossom palate and a long velvety finish. Enjoy it with good food or just on its own.

Glen Carlou Paarl			325
One of Glen Carlou's award-winning Chardonnays; fermented in French oak and matured for ten months 'sur lie' this wine rewards with rich, round fruity flavours and harmoniously balanced with well integrated oak.
